It is our responsibility to reciprocate the same. He cited some real life examples, the analogy of Harvard University and Stanford University to articulate his views and expectations from the Alumni. He appealed that maximum students should come forward and be a part of the historic celebration.
- With this it was time to fulfill the proposal that was made during the 2nd Alumni meet in the year 2019. There was a book donation ceremony, books were handed over to the Department authorities with the commitment to do more in the coming years. Later on, dignitaries and Ex-students were felicitated with token of appreciation.
