Gandhi and Global Peace

If we cast an eye over contemporary world, we witness that during the last five or six decades the world has made phenomenal progress in the field of science, technology, economy etc. but on the other hand, threat to human life has increased manifold in every nook and corner of the world. It may be due to the proliferation of Nuclear weapons of mass destruction, terrorism of many forms, communal frenzy, human degradation and substantial erosion of moral and humanitarian values. Gradually, people throughout the world are developing an innate faith in violence. Terrorism is engulfing the world. Therefore, the greatest challenge before the human society is to establish global peace and to make the world free from fear. Therefore, to bring about peace in the world should be the first priority of every nation of the world. In today's world, peace is a priceless and rare commodity. "Securing peace is quite different from purchasing a commodity in a market. If you go with a credit card to a shop, you can purchase the commodity first and the price is paid after words. But, in securing peace you have to pay the price first and then you achieve peace" (Simon Pares 2003).

We have tested several methods like bullet, ballot, war, coercion etc. to establish global peace the world over but, none of these methods has been fruitful. Thus, the only alternative before the human society to save itself is to rely on Gandhian way, of non-violence, the way of communal harmony, religious tolerance by appealing to the conscience of every human being.

The name Mahatma Gandhi is sufficient enough to convey the message of peace an amity to the human society as a whole. Gandhi, the apostle and harbinger of peace was truly a noble soul and a humanitarian to the core and was also an ardent supporter of global peace. All his life he had contemplated on two major issues, non-violence and communal harmony. In fact, at the end he had to sacrifice his life for the realization of those two goals which can be regarded as the foundation stones of global peace.

Strategy for Global Peace: -The Gandhian approach

One of the cardinal principles of Gandhian philosophy is Non-violence. Gandhiji had a firm faith in the principle of non-violence as a moral principle. The supremacy of Ahimsa has been recognized by Gandhiji. In his words "Nonviolence is the first article of my faith. It is also the last article of my creed". Gandhiji was a great seeker of truth. For him, truth was God, truth was the end and truth was everything. It is this truth which is relevant in all ages. Truth can be achieved through Ahimsa or Non-violence, which in Gandhian terminology means infinite issue and infinite capacity for suffering. Truth is the end and non-violence are the means.

Gandhi maintained that Truth and non-violence are inseparable and are keys to all religions. The original message of every religion is the message of peace and non-violence. Therefore, Ahimsa or non-violence is not a novel concept and well known in all religions. It is embedded in the holy scriptures of Jainism, Buddhism, in the Vedas and Upanishads, Quran and Bible. Non-violence is considered to be an essential norm in Jainism, Buddhism and Yoga philosophic tradition, for the realization of spiritual awakening and development is considered to be a vital principle almost in every religion. "Truth as non-violence as eternal and as old as the mountains".

Gandhiji learnt the lesson of truth and non-violence from various scriptures and the teaching of Buddha, Jain and Jesus. Thus, one has to think that there is nothing original or unique in what Gandhi's thinking.
