- Speaking Skills.
- Reading Skills.
- Writing Skills.
- All are connected to each other.
- Importance of these skills for career growth.

Importance of English Speaking Skills

- Education.
- Business.
- Work.
- Career advancement. (Most Important)

Tips for Developing English Speaking Skills.

- Be Confident.
 - a. Be confident when you speak.
 - b. Try not to hesitate.
 - c. Don't worry too much about what other people will think.
 - d. Don't be afraid of making mistakes.
 - e. Be Patient.
 - f. Be positive.

Practice

- a. You can practice in number of ways.
- b. Try to use English in every conversation.
- c. Speak clearly. Practice frequently.
- d. Practice tongue twister.
- e. You can work with others in group debate or discussion or practice on your own- use a mirror.
- f. Describe a picture you like. Practice a role play.
- g. Be imaginative. Tell a story. Practice with your friends.
- h. Be aware of your strength and weakness.
- i. Practice with your friends or practice yourself.

Thinking about grammar

- a. Try to avoid errors_ think about fluency.
- b. Read Essential English Grammar by Raymond Murphy.
- c. Focus on Tense, Clauses.
- d. Read Newspaper and listen to English audio and video.

Observation

- a. Observation plays a vital role in developing English speaking skills, correcting grammar, building vocabulary and forming sentences.
- b. Watch English videos with subtitle.
- c. listen to English audios with head phone.
- d. Make a close observation of English conversation.
- e. Record you own practice speech and find out the faults.

Presenting and Practicing Vocabulary

- Use flash card. (a card bearing words, numbers, or pictures that is briefly displayed as a learning aid).
- Brain storming. (a group problem-solving that involves the spontaneous contribution of ideas from all members of the group).
- Using a mind map. (Transport: Land, Water, Air).
- Keep records of new words.
- Read a new word from dictionary and form various sentences using it.

Pronunciation

- Be a good listener.
- Practice consonant sounds which are difficult for speakers of first language.
- Practice Pronouncing them loudly and clearly.
- Improve your intonation by listening and singing along to songs.
- Speak clearly and loudly.
- One can use mobile applications to practice Pronunciation.

How can we create immersive speaking tasks.

- Speaking tasks are different from practice activities.
- A task need to be planned carefully to provide an immersive experience.

Choosing a Topic

- It is very essential to choose a right topic.
- Basically students are more likely to engage themselves with task when the topic interests them.
- There is difference between adult learner and learners in schools.
- Adult student often expresses the desire for topic that are contemporary, have real world application, are relevant to their field of study, and address their personal interests from travel to hobbies and from politics to relationship.
- Young learners in schools take interest in the topics related to school life, class room tasks & video games.

Choosing a Task

- A good task needs an objective as well as sufficient level challenge to interest and engage learners.
- Tasks usually contain several stages that requires learners to use a variety of thinking skills

Solve a Problem

- These tasks tests learners' logic and include puzzles and problems.
- They have a single correct solution.
- For example, learners work together to solve problem. (Games like treasure hunts.)

Share a Personal Experience

- These tasks are based on learners own experiences and include story telling, anecdotes and memories of the past.

Discuss or Debate a Topic

- These involve an exchange of opinions and ideas on various topics, in which individuals or groups can come to independent conclusions and defend their position.

Closed or Open Task

- A closed task has one correct answer or solution that learners know they must arrive at.
- Solving a mystery, matching several people with suitable jobs and 'spot the difference' are closed tasks.
- In an open task learners know that there is no predetermined solution.
- The outcome, therefore, is unpredictable.
- Such tasks include 'free conversation, a debate ranking favorite, leisure time activities, explaining how something works, etc.

Effective English Speaking Skills

- Fluency. (Clear and Clarity)
- Grammar.
- Pronunciation and intonation.
- Body language.

REPORT

Annual Dramatic Function

The dramatic association of Pattamundai College organised a meeting under the chairmanship of Prof A.L.N.Dash, principal of this institution on the occasion of annual dramatic function on 25-01-2020 at 11 A.M. in college premises. The meeting was started with lighting the sacred lamp. Then the state anthem was sung by the group of students of the college. The principal welcomed all the eminent guests and the vice presidents present on the dais and students, media persons and public audiences of the dais. He addressed the gathering about the importance of the institution by performing such type of traditional cultural events which not only enhances the importance of the institution but also creates environment to retain our age old tradition. Mr Ranjit Keshari Senapati, Vice president of the association introduced the guests present on the dais. Sj Golek Chandra Moharana, chief guest, Sj Hrusikesh Mishra, Sj Harendra Jena and Smt Kandeï Biswal guests of honour expressed their views regarding the function. As the guests were mainly opera actors, they performed acts of different plays to the audiences to entertain them. The meeting was ended with vote of thanks by Mr Amiya Kumar Das, associate vice president, dramatic association.

Prof A L N Dash, Principal cum President of meeting then declared to start the Drama namely "SAMPARK" which was performed by our college students (boys and girls) in the presence of huge audiences of around 2000 nos. Finally the drama was ended with the distribution of prizes and certificates to the best performers. The college students also have performed the different activities like one act play and dance competitions throughout the year and the winners were also awarded with prizes and certificates by the guests in the same function.

REPORT

A relief camp was organised for the flood affected people at Singhagaan Gram Panchayat under Pattamundai Block of Kendrapara District with the collaboration of NCC, NSS and YRC Units of Pattamundai College on 31st August 2020 at 11 a.m. The principal Prof. Adhikari Laxminarayan Dash constituted a team which included Capt. Manoj Parida , NCC officer, Mr. Pradyumna Pradhan, Co-ordinator NSS, Mr. Sarojakanta Nayak, Counsellor YRC, Dr. Sunil Kumar Pradhan, Lecturer in Chemistry and some volunteers. The camp was started with the packing of dry foods and essential items such as- Chudda, Biscuits, Bread, Mosquito Coils, Candles, Menthoplus, drinking water etc. by the volunteers. The team started the journey to the flood affected area by a local Boat. After two hours of journey on water, the team reached at the destination. The team members distributed the packets to the flood affected people by travelling door to door. People became very glad by our assistance during their miserable condition.

We received a hearty and kind co-operation from the local Sarapanch Mrs. Jayanti Das and all the twelve Ward members of the Panchayat. The work was highly praised by the local people.

REPORT

The Cultural Association, NSS, NCC and Youth Red Cross of Pattamundai college have organized different competitions i.e. Drawing, Essay (English and Odia), Debate (English and Odia) and G.K. among the +3 and +2 students of the college on dt. 17.09.19, 18.09.19, 19.09.19 and 20.09.19 to mark 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi at the college level. The Celebration Day was also observed in pump and pleasure on 2nd October 2019 in hall no. 25 of the college in presence of the distinguished guest along with Principal, teaching and non teaching staffs and students of the college. At the outset, an oath taking programme was undertaken in presence of all staff members and students in front of the statue of Gandhi inside the college campus. At the commencement of the meeting, Captain Manoj Parida has given a welcome address with the introduction of the guest. Mr. Sachidananda Dash, Retired Head Master from a Chandan Nagar High School has focused several important points to define the character and quality of Bapu as a charismatic national leader. Principal of the college Adhikari Laxmi Narayan Dash also highlighted and inspired the students to follow the footprint of Gandhi to build a strong nation. He also appreciated the endeavor taken by the organizers to make the meeting a successful one. He advised the gathering to make the college and surrounding a plastic free zone. The winners of different competitions were awarded by the guest and principal. The meeting was ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Anjali Dash, H.O.D. Department of Botany.
