Answer any five.

(2×5)

1. i) What is basic variables.
- ii) What is degenerate solution.
- iii) What is optimum basic feasible solution.
- iv) Write the normal form of the L.P.P.
 $\max(z) = 4x_1 + 10x_2$, subject to the constraints
 $3x_1 + 4x_2 \leq 50$, $x_1 + x_2 \leq 50$, $2x_1 + 3x_2 \leq 100$ where $x_i \geq 0$, $i = 1, 2$
- v) Write the difference between two phase method and big M-method.
- vi) $\text{Max } z^* < 0$ and atleast one artificial variable is present in the basis with positive value. Then show that the original L.P.P. does not posses any feasible solution.
- vii) Convert minimize problem to manimize problem.
 $\min z = x_1 + x_2$, subject to constraints
 $x_1 + x_2 \geq 10$, $x_1 + 2x_2 \geq 15$, where $x_1, x_2 \geq 0$.

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

"English Literature in the Post-Independence India" is overlaid by a mighty and momentous struggle for Independence sweeping the entire nation and exerting tremendous impact on the sense of national consciousness among the literary fraternity. Thus the lucid description of the freedom struggles showcase images of the awakened Indians who sought to regain their freedom from the grueling and torturous regime of the Britishers. Apart from these reflections, the writers of this era are able to propagate their points of views, which ultimately helps to motivate and guide the masses. Thus the fixation on religious aestheticism was replaced by concerns on socio - political issues during the period. The joy of accomplishing the grandiose feat of obtaining Independence was abruptly marred by the horrendous and traumatic partition of 1947. The horrors, tragic consequences and partition like the large scale migration, reckless looting and merciless massacres were portrayed by the writers in their works which captured the interest, and imagination of the reader, the Indian English novels began to prove its mark in the global literary scenario. East - West conflict, multi - culturalism, social realism, gender issues, comic aspect of human nature, ecological concerns, magic realism, diasporic writings and the like became the themes of the post - Independent writers.
